Terms of Service

Last updated: November 16, 2026

These Terms govern your use of AdCombinator (“we,” “us,” or “our”). By accessing or using the service, you agree to these Terms.

1. The service and your account

AdCombinator provides video templates, customization tools, and video generation services. You must be at least 18 and legally able to enter into an agreement to use the service.

You are responsible for your account, the information you provide, and activity carried out through your account. Keep access to your Google account secure.

2. Tokens and payments

Tokens are prepaid credits used to generate videos. The applicable token cost is shown before you confirm a generation. Tokens have no cash value outside AdCombinator and cannot be transferred or redeemed for money.

Purchases are final unless required otherwise by applicable law. If a technical failure prevents delivery of a generation, contact us so we can arrange a retry, restore the affected tokens, or provide another appropriate remedy. Blockchain network fees and transfers sent to an incorrect address or network may be unrecoverable.

3. Your content and generated videos

You retain your rights to content you submit. You grant us permission to process that content only as necessary to operate the service and generate your videos.

You may use completed videos commercially, including in advertising, subject to these Terms and any restrictions disclosed for the relevant template. This permission does not transfer ownership of our templates, source projects, software, or underlying assets, and does not grant rights to third-party brands, likenesses, or other protected material beyond the rights we are entitled to provide.

You may not extract, resell, redistribute, or sublicense templates or their underlying assets as standalone products.

4. Acceptable use

You must have the rights and permissions needed for the content you submit and the way you use generated videos. You may not use the service for unlawful, fraudulent, misleading, infringing, or abusive activity, or attempt to compromise or disrupt the service.

You are responsible for complying with applicable laws, advertising platform rules, and licensing requirements. Gambling-related advertising must meet the legal age, location, licensing, and responsible gambling requirements that apply to your campaign, and must not target minors.

5. Availability and responsibility

The service is provided “as is” and “as available.” We do not guarantee uninterrupted operation, advertising approval, campaign performance, or any particular financial result.

To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for indirect or consequential losses, including lost profits, advertising spend, or lost business opportunities. Nothing in these Terms excludes rights or liabilities that cannot lawfully be excluded.

6. Suspension and changes

We may suspend access where reasonably necessary to address a breach of these Terms, fraud, security risks, or legal obligations. We may update the service and these Terms. Material changes will be communicated through the service or another appropriate channel and will apply prospectively.

7. Contact

For support, payment issues, or questions about these Terms, contact support@adcombinator.co.
